A VERDICT FOR THE HIGH CONSTABLE. - In 1 the Circuit Court of Richmond, yesterday, a verdict for the defendant was rendered in the suit of Michael Shuey, of Cincinnati, vs. A. B. Duesberry, High Constable of this city. Some months ago the creditors of F. L. Gardner & Co. sued out an attachment against the goods of that firm, and the High Constable, under orders from the Police Court and Circuit Court, seized at the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad depôt a lot of goods consigned by Shuey to Gardner. The goods were regularly sold and their proceeds, &c., distributed to creditors. shuey instituted a suit for damages in the amount of $315, and alleged that the goods were never sold to Gardner & Co.,
